

PLAN TO CATALOGUE ALL CONGRESSMEN

Suffragettes Outline New Campaign—Will Use Every Legitimate Means.

If making a card index of the members of Congress; listing the maiden name of each one's wife; cataloguing each one's business affiliations; making sure to what religious body each belongs and "using every legitimate means" based upon such information can win the vote for women, opponents of suffrage had better look out. For this is the latest plan for the fall campaign to be conducted by the Congressional Union for women's suffrage.

Mrs. Lucia Grimes, who is heralded as "an expert in research work," Mrs. W. Lowe, who is described as "an historical student," and Miss Mildred McKinnon, of Wisconsin, have undertaken the compilation of the "index." Announcement that they will come to Washington was made today by Miss Alice Paul, of the union, who arrived in Washington, returning from a trip which took her through the Eastern, Middle, and Western States. She left later for Delaware, where she will address gatherings in the interest of votes for women.

In discussing the index plan, Miss Paul said: "This city is to be the center of the greatest suffrage activities ever witnessed in this country next December. By the time Congress meets, we will have every member of the Senate and House indexed, so that we can tell just how he stands on our proposition. If he is for it, we will know, and give ourselves no more concern about him; but, if he is against it, we will leave no stone unturned to bring him in line. It is our purpose to get together all the information we can about each member of Congress and use every legitimate influence at our disposal to have him support the Anthony amendment."

W. J. BRYAN EVADES QUESTION OF PLANS

Declines to Answer to Query as to Probability of Becoming Candidate for President.

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 1.—It is still an open question whether William J. Bryan, former Secretary of State, will be a candidate for President in 1916.

The former Secretary, pressed for a statement about stories that he might be an opponent of President Wilson for the Democratic nomination or a candidate on the "dry" ticket, gave out the following statement:

"I have no political aspirations whatever, no plans looking to the holding of any office in the future. The work I have mapped out for my remaining years does not include occupying any political positions. There is one class in this country," he said, "that has insisted I should promise never, under any circumstances, to be a candidate for anything. I never have felt it necessary to gratify this class by making a promise of that kind, and I don't think it necessary to make that kind of promise now."

Fence to Keep Fire Fighters From Saloon

JERSEY CITY, Aug. 1.—Frank Hague, director of public safety, called Park Commissioner Moore on the telephone.

"Can you send me three carpenters?" asked Hague.

"Sure, what do you want them for?"

"To build a fence—a high fence."

"Where?"

"Between the quarters of engine No. 7 and the saloon next door."

The fence will be built tomorrow.

Whiskers Foil Mosquitoes.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 1.—Kansas farmers have returned temporarily to the fashion of long hair and long beards to prevent mosquitoes from interfering with harvesting.

Son Born to Thaw's Sister, Ex-Countess

BOSTON, August 1.—Announcement is made of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Gordon Whitney (Alice Copley Thaw) at their home in Milton. Mrs. Whitney was formerly the Countess of Yarmouth, and is a daughter of Mrs. William Thaw. As Mrs. Copley Thaw, she was married to Mr. Whitney in April, 1913.

Sues for Divorce at 70.

PARSONS, Kan., Aug. 1.—Married when more than seventy-seven years old, William R. Lackey, a well-to-do farmer, who lives near Edna, south of here, is now suing for divorce at the age of seventy-nine. He alleges his wife lived with him only thirty days after their marriage in June, 1914. Lackey's first wife died two years ago. His second wife has been a neighbor for fifteen years.

$50,000 Alienation Suit Against Banker

PATERSON, N. J., Aug. 1.—Robert McCandless, a contracting plumber, has begun suit for $50,000 damages against Cyrus J. Lozier, a banker, of Ridgefield Park, N. J., on a charge of alienating his wife's affections.

Telling How to Live, Dies.

TURNER, Ore., Aug. 1.—"Prepare to live and you will be prepared to die," said the Rev. R. G. Callison, addressing a large congregation in the tabernacle of the Oregon Christian Church convention. As he spoke he sank to the floor of the pulpit and died within a few seconds. Death was due to apoplexy.

Sham Battle Ends in Jig by "Dying" Man

FLORENCE, N. J., Aug. 1.—In a sham battle of New Jersey National Guardsmen, one participant played the part of a dying soldier so realistically that women spectators in great excitement invaded the trenches, stopped the battle and demanded an explanation. To calm them the "dying" man jumped off a stretcher and did a jig on the battlefield.

Executed With Becker, Lies in Pauper Grave

OSSENING, N. Y., Aug. 1.—Unmourned, unaccompanied except by a handful of members of the Mutual Welfare League, the body of Samuel Haynes, half-breed negro, who was executed a few minutes after Charles Becker Friday morning, was buried in the prison cemetery. He is the first condemned man to go to a pauper's grave in fifteen years.
